1. On 7 November [REDACTED] (Chief, DDP Recruitment Officer), [REDACTED] (Chief, Junior Officer Affairs) and Chief, CTP attended the Mid-Course Review of students attending the BOC [REDACTED]. All of us found this a useful and interesting session. Of the CT's attending the Course one is apparently trying too hard, another not hard enough, and there is some question as to whether a third should be attending the Course. Hopefully we shall be able to resolve this question in the next couple of weeks. All other CT's appear to be turning in satisfactory or better performances, and several of the CT's appear to be strong candidates to become team leaders in the final comprehensive exercise.

2. [REDACTED] are attending an interview workshop [REDACTED] from 8-10 November. We hope their participation in this workshop will produce some ideas for our use in the interviewing of CT applicants.

3. The July 1972 CT Class will conclude their first Interim Assignment on 10 November and will begin their Pre-Interim Briefings for their second Interim Assignment on 13 November. Thirteen members of the Class will attend briefings for the DDI and twelve members will be briefed for the DDP. Five other members of the Class for one reason or another will not need the Briefings. [REDACTED] for example, will have her second Interim in [REDACTED].

4. We are now receiving the reports on the first Interim Assignment of the July 1972 Class and [REDACTED] one of the members of this Class, has received a special Memorandum of Commendation from the FE Division for developing a [REDACTED] Station. This is a good example of the significant duties being assigned to CT's during their Interim Assignments.
